

Coach Davis' Policies and Procedures

Main Rules:

- Be Respectful
- Have a distraction free learning experience

Classroom expectations:

- Be respectful
- Be responsible
- Be present
- Be involved
- Be ready

Have all materials ready when class starts.

Come in and work on the assignment on the board.

Turn in work into your proper class period box at the "Work Station" by the door. If you miss for some reason, you are responsible to get the missing material for that day or those days. Missed materials will be in the appropriate "What did I miss" box at the "Work Station". If you miss review day, you are still responsible to take the test on test day. If you miss test day, you are responsible to make up the test on the day you return.

There will be a 25-point weekly participation grade. This grade consists of bell-ringers, class participation, and your attitude in class.

Stay in your assigned seat unless otherwise allowed to get up. You are allowed two bathroom passes per semester.

You are allowed to chew gum and bring water and Gatorade unless you abuse the privilege. No other beverages and no food will be consumed in class.

Let's have a great year!!
